HONOR GUARD CLINIC WITH BRENT JONES

February 21-22, 2019

SPONSORED BY
THE OVERLAND PARK FIRE DEPARTMENT

CLASS INSTRUCTORS

Brent Jones-Milwaukee Fire Department

Brent is a 14 year member of the Milwaukee Firefighter's Honor Guard. He was commander for the honor guard for 11 years. He is also deputy commander for the IAFF Honor Guard. In addition, he's has been a training officer for the Professional Firefighters of Wisconsin (PFFW) Honor Guard.

Brent has also shared his knowledge throughout the country and has received great reviews with his content, presentation skills and real world scenarios and drills that he includes in this clinic that benefit any honor guard member and allow these skills to be transferred in to regular training for department honor guard members.

Limited Enrollment
Maximum Students: 40

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Overland Park Fire Department is excited to welcome back Brent Jones and his two-day Honor Guard Clinic.

This two-day program is a must for any member that is part of a fire or police department honor guard unit. Topics include inspection, drill, colors detail, casket guard detail, flag folding detail, and cemetery proceedings.

This course will be very skill orientated and participants will leave the course having a greater understanding of the role and duties of honor guard members as well as a higher confidence level in their ability to perform at any function that requires an honor guard team.
